

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.61

1928

ELLIS ORIGINATIONS

Gladialis

LIBRARY

FROST KING

Merton G. Ellis Bulb Gardens
Canby, Oregon

- ALVINA.....A flesh pink of very dainty and (1927) exquisite coloring.
(Merton G. Ellis) Each $10.00
- ANGEL'S DREAM....A La France pink of rare beau-(1927) ty. Many florets open at a time (Merton G. Ellis) and many more to open. Exquisite in the basket and large vase.Each $20.00
- BEATRICIA.....A soft rose red with large wide-(1926) open florets. An improved
(Merton G. Ellis) Beatriz MichelenaEach 50c
- BENGAL BEAUTY....This is a cross between Ben-(1927) gal Tiger and Golden Measure.
(Mrs. M. G. Ellis) The spike is tall and strong like Golden Measure; but has more the color of Bengal Tiger, only more brilliant markings and more gold in it. The color does not fade before the florets wilt.
It attracts much attention, Each $3.00
- CAPT. COURAGEOUS....A beautiful mottled red.
(1927) Of very rich coloring and good (Merton G. Ellis) form.Each $5.00
- EARLY PHIPPS....An extra fine new early variety, (1927) a shade deeper in coloring than (Merton G. Ellis) its father, Mr. W. H. Phipps, but of the same shimmering, iridescent effect under electric light. One of the very earliest and of very lasting quality.
Slightly ruffled. Stands hot winds better than most early varieties. Stems sometimes crook, but this even adds to its graceful appearance in the basket or vase where it is at its best.Each $20.00
- ELOMA.....Winner of first prize for best new (1927) seedling at Portland Regional (Merton G. Ellis) Exhibit in 1927. A dainty pink.
Resembles Longfellow in size and coloring.Each $5.00
- ERNESTINE.....Very clear, bright, peach red (1927) with pure white throat. Sparkles
(Mrs. M. G. Ellis) wonderfully in the sunlight or under electric light - large flo-rets and many out at once. Very beautiful.Each $3.00
- FROST KING.....A clear, coral pink with white (1927) throat. Very graceful spike
(Mrs. M. G. Ellis) with quite large, well placed florets. This variety blooms very early and late. The early frosts do not seem to affect it.
It continues blooming in the garden from small bulb or bulblet after the frost has taken everything else. It is very prolific and a splendid germinator so we can offer it at this price.Each $1.00

- GREY KNIGHT.....A very odd but beautiful (1926) lavender gray. Its coloring re-(Merton G. Ellis) minds us of a beautiful Iris. Each $2.50
- LADY MACBETH.....Large, scarlet florets with (1927) two large white blotches in (Mrs. M. G. Ellis) throat having a thin dark red line running through the center of each. Many florets open at once—good spike—very striking.Each $3.00
- MONARCH OF THE GLEN....The strongest grow-(1927) ing glad in the garden—immense
(Mrs. M. G. Ellis) spike—large extremely ruffled or fluted, bright salmon pink florets. This is in a class all by itself. (Only No. 1 bulbs for sale this year).Each $25.00
- MOUNTAIN GIRL....A pink glad, about the color (1927) of a wild rose, beautifully shaded (Mrs. M. G. Ellis) with deeper pink — a yellow throat giving her the effect of having been “moon struck.” A tall straight spike, quite large, well arranged florets slightly ruffled, many open at a time—a good keeper as a cut flower.
.....Each $3.00
- OREGON QUEEN.....Clear cream with yellow (1927) throat. Tall graceful spike —
(Mrs. M. G. Ellis) large wide open florets, seven or more open at a time. This glad resembles a spike of lovely lilies.Each $5.00
- PRIDE OF PORTLAND....Begonia Rose - very large (1926) florets. This won the A. G. S.
(Merton G. Ellis) Trophy at our Regional Exhibit in 1926 for best seedling. Each $10.00
- PINK MARIEAn excellent florists' pink. In (1926) form it resembles somewhat (Merton G. Ellis) Marie Kunderd, one of its parents.Each $1.00
- RED GLORYA vigorous bright ruffled red (1927) of extra fine form and value.
(Merton G. Ellis) Except in color it closely resembles Purple Glory.Each $5.00
- RED MARIEA fine red with large florets (1927) and pointed petals.
(Merton G. Ellis)Each $1.00
- RED ROYLarge, well placed florets. The (1927) tallest red. A very striking (Merton G. Ellis) garden variety.Each $10.00
- RED TORNADOStrong growing, brilliant red (1925) with darker velvety throat. “It (Merton G. Ellis) takes the world by storm, but storms don't take it.”Each $20.00
- RIPPLING WATERSCream, suffused with (1926) pink—large florets—very beau-(Merton G. Ellis) tiful.Each $10.00

STAR OF THE SEA....Peach red with rich brownish scarlet throat, tipped with lemon yellow points. No description can express the beauty of this glad. It must be seen to be appreciated. It is well named, "Star of the Sea." Each $10.00 (1926)
(Merton G. Ellis)

SWORD OF MAHOMET....An unusual shade of purplish, brownish red—a strong grower—tall straight spike with well placed florets. An interesting oddity.Each $4.00
(1926)
(Merton G. Ellis)

WHITE CLOUDA creamy white. Many florets open at a time. A good keeper, especially in the late fall.Each $2.00 (1927)
(Merton G. Ellis)

One half size bulbs of all the above except MONARCH OF THE GLEN and OREGON QUEEN may be had for $\frac{1}{2}$ price of No. 1 bulb, and 10 bulblets for price of one No. 1 bulb, unless otherwise listed in our general pricelist.

Set A: Three bulblets of each of these: Early Phipps, Angel's Dream, Capt. Courageous. White Cloud, Pride of Portland, Rippling Waters, Star of the Sea, a $20.00 value for$10.00

Set B: One No. 3, three No. 5, and four No. 6 bulbs and 15 bulblets of Frost King for$2.50

Set C: One No. 5 bulb of each of these: Early Phipps, Eloma, Beatricia, Pride of Portland, Pink Marie, Red Tornado, Rippling Waters, Star of the Sea, and Sword of Mahomet, about $28.00 value for$17.50

OREGON GIANT PANSY SEED — A wonderful strain of very large, ruffled pansies originated by Mrs. Merton G. Ellis. 600 Seeds$1.00

WREXHAM DELPHINIUM SEED—A very select strain. 1 Packet$1.00 Half oz.$7.50

CANBY QUEEN — A wonderful Prize Winning Exhibition Dahlia originated by Mrs. Merton G. Ellis. Very large and very double Peony type, seldom showing the center. Stands up well on long strong stems. Greatly admired. Delicate lavender pink with fine yellow line through each petal.Each $10.00

All orders are received subject to prior sale, and are shipped either postpaid or express prepaid.

"MAKING THEM GROW," by Merton G. Ellis, is a book designed especially for the use of those interested in the rapid propagation of the new and higher priced Gladioli. Per copy, postpaid,$3.50

Closed on Sundays.

Please send remittance with order to:

Merton G. Ellis Bulb Gardens
CANBY, OREGON